IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,
v.
HOPELYN RHIANNON AUSK, Defendant.

CASE NO. 2:20-CR-0204-JAM
STIPULATION REGARDING EXCLUDABLE
TIME PERIODS UNDER SPEEDY TRIAL ACT;
FINDINGS AND ORDER
DATE: February 9, 2021
TIME: 9:30 a.m.
COURT: Hon. John A. Mendez

This case was previously set for a status conference on February 9, 2021. The government and Defendant Hopelyn Rhiannon Ausk, by and through her counsel of record Douglas Beevers, (the “parties”) now seek to continue the status conference to February 23, 2021, and exclude time under the Speedy Trial Act and Local Code T4 for defense preparation.

STIPULATION

Plaintiff United States of America, by and through its counsel of record, and defendant, by and through defendant’s counsel of record, hereby stipulate as follows:

1. By previous order, this matter was set for status on February 9, 2021.
2. By this stipulation, the defendant now moves to continue the status conference to February 23, 2021, and exclude time between February 9, 2021, and February 23, 2021, under 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), B(iv) [Local Code T4].
3. The parties agree and stipulate, and request that the Court find the following:

1 a) The government has represented that the discovery associated with this case
2 includes approximately 500 pages of police reports, search warrant returns, subpoena returns,
3 photographs, EDD records, and bank/financial records, as well as several dozen jail call
4 recordings. All of this discovery has been either produced directly to counsel and/or made
5 available for inspection and copying.

6 b) Counsel for defendant desires additional time to review the current charges,
7 review discovery, conduct research and investigation into the charges and alleged acts, consult
8 with his, and otherwise prepare for trial.

9 c) At this time, the defendant has no objection to the Court's continuance of the 10 status conference to February 23, 2021, and agrees that such a continuance is necessary for 11 effective preparation as outlined below.

12 d) Counsel for defendant believes that the Court's continuance will provide them
13 reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due
14 diligence.

15 e) The government does not object to the continuance.

16 f) In addition to the public health concerns cited by the General Orders and 17 declarations of judicial emergency, and presented by the evolving COVID-19 pandemic, an 18 ends-of-justice delay is particularly apt in this case because defendant's counsel has relayed that
19 he has been delayed in consulting with defendant due to the COVID-19 pandemic and visitation
20 restrictions at the jail where the defendant is detained.

21 g) Based on the above-stated findings, the ends of justice served by continuing the 22 case as requested outweigh the interest of the public and the defendant in a trial within the 23 original date prescribed by the Speedy Trial Act.

24 h) For the purpose of computing time under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161,
25 et seq., within which trial must commence, the time period of February 9, 2021, to February 23,
26 2021, inclusive, is deemed excludable pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), B(iv) [Local Code
27 T4] because it results from a continuance granted by the Court at defendant's request on the basis
28 of the Court's finding that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best

1 interest of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial.

2 4. Nothing in this stipulation and order shall preclude a finding that other provisions of the
3 Speedy Trial Act dictate that additional time periods are excludable from the period within which a trial
4 must commence.

5 IT IS SO STIPULATED.
